

Mechanical Engineer

Master Mechanical Services Ltd, member of Vavlitis group, operating in Maintenance and Service in the Cyprus market, is currently seeking to recruit high caliber professional to fulfill the above position.

Position summary & key areas of responsibility

An exciting and highly challenging position, the ideal candidate should be results oriented, dynamic and enthusiastic individual with a solid background in mechanical engineering for building services, willing to work hard. The person appointed will also be expected to successfully:

- Assist in the supervision of the maintenance department and the commission of equipment sold by the Group
- Assist technical team in troubleshooting and repair HVAC equipment
- Supervise the execution of maintenance works, electrical and plumbing works
- Obtain tenders and analyses
- Building and maintaining rewarding relationships with trade professionals
- Ensure compliance with health and safety legislation
- Ability to manage multiple-tasks with differing priorities simultaneously
- Other relevant duties
- Work within the company's code of ethics

Candidate Profile

- University Degree in mechanical engineering.
- Substantial experience in similar position
- Strong organisational interpersonal and coordination skills.
- Excellent computer skills.
- Excellent communication and negotiation skills.
- Excellent knowledge of Greek and English languages.
- Have a pleasant personality and strong commercial awareness.

Remuneration

An excellent remuneration package which includes basic salary performance, related bonuses, company car, plus other fringe benefits will be offered to the ideal candidate in accordance to qualifications and experience.

Applications

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae with a cover letter describing what makes you suitable for this position to hr@vavlitis.com mentioning the ref.no.21/219 not later than 12/04/2021. All applications will be treated in the strictest confidentiality and only eligible candidates will be contacted.